

Lendlease Asia funds top 2018 sustainability rankings

Singapore, 20 September 2018: Lendlease's Asia funds have again topped the rankings of 2018 Global Real Estate Sustainability Benchmark (GRESB) in the Asia Retail category for their leadership in sustainability.

Used by the industry to benchmark Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) performance, 903 participants and 79,000 properties, representing US$3.6 trillion in global assets under management took part in the 2018 GRESB Survey.

In the Asia Retail funds category with 23 submissions, the five Lendlease-managed funds swept the top positions. Asian Retail Investment Fund 1 (ARIF1), which holds 313@somerset, retained its number one ranking as the regional sector leader from 2017. ARIF 1 also topped the Asia rankings out of 123 submissions. Meanwhile Parkway Parade Partnership jumped five spots from last year to clinch second. ARIF 2 (Setia City Mall in Malaysia) and ARIF 3 (Jem) came in third and fourth respectively, while Lendlease Jem Partners Fund completed the top rankings for Lendlease in fifth.

Lendlease Chief Investment Officer, Asia, Ng Hsueh Ling, said: "We are honoured to be recognised by GRESB once again for our efforts in sustainability in Asia. As we mark our 60th anniversary this year globally, we renewed our commitment as a signatory to the United Nations Principles of Responsible Investment (UNPRI). Lendlease is focused on delivering long term value as governments, investors and the private sector seek trusted partners who can deliver efficient, healthy and resilient outcomes that are financially, environmentally, culturally and socially inclusive."

In Singapore, Lendlease continues to spearhead efforts in making its developments more sustainable. For example, Jem has recently been re-certified Green Mark Platinum by the Building & Construction Authority for its sustainability leadership. Over in Singapore's East, Parkway Parade will be commencing eco-tours later this year to share the sustainability message.
