

Lendlease named delivery partner for nbn's HFC network in Sydney North and Gold Coast regions

Sydney, Thursday, 14 July 2016: Lendlease has secured an additional scope of work to deliver National Broadband Network (nbn) infrastructure in the Sydney North and Gold Coast regions over the next four years.

As one of nbn co limited's (nbn's) delivery partners, Lendlease will deliver nbn™ network infrastructure in the two significant regions, passing more than 90,000 premises in the first 12 months alone.

Lendlease will work closely with nbn to deliver network upgrades and remediation, new lead-ins to premises, in-building cabling and infill in nominated areas on the Hybrid Fibre Coaxial (HFC) Network.

Managing Director of Lendlease's Services business, Ashley Mason, said the contract signifies the increasing strength of Lendlease's telecommunications capability.

"Our telecommunications division is expanding rapidly as we continue to support our customers in the disciplined delivery of the nbn™ network, Australia's largest infrastructure project.

"Our national expertise means we're able to ramp up construction quickly to deliver nbn's infrastructure safely and efficiently. We are committed to providing essential services to the sector in the long-term as a proud delivery partner to nbn," said Mr Mason.

Lendlease is currently delivering nbn infrastructure in Orange and Wagga Wagga, New South Wales; Redcliffe, Queensland; and Frankston, Victoria.

For further information about the nbn infrastructure roll-out, please contact Katrina Rowe; Community and Stakeholder Manager, NBN, HFC; on 0427 601 097 or Katrina.rowe@lendlease.com.
