Local shopper to open ALDI at Armadale Shopping City

Perth, 10 August 2016: One local shopper will have the chance to cut the ribbon at the official opening of ALDI at Armadale Shopping City on Wednesday August 17, plus win a trolley full of ALDI groceries.

Armadale Shopping City is delighted to welcome ALDI as a new major tenant and customers are invited to join in the celebrations.

Free breakfast treats and entertainment will be available to customers as part of the launch of the new ALDI store on Wednesday 17 August from 8am to 10am.

Armadale Shopping City Centre Manager Quentin Dennis said he was thrilled customers were an integral part of the ALDI opening celebrations.

“We value our customers at Armadale Shopping City and are committed to delivering great service, variety, and convenience.

“ALDI will boost our retail offer and create up to 20 rewarding career opportunities for local residents,” he said.

Customers can enter to win the chance to cut the ‘opening day’ ribbon via the Armadale Shopping City Facebook page simply by answering what makes them an ‘ALDI-holic’ in the comments section of the competition post. Full terms and conditions are available on the Centre’s website.

Centre-wide sales and entertainment will continue each day until Sunday 21 August.

Armadale Shopping City has all your shopping needs under one roof including ALDI, Coles, two discount department stores - Kmart and Target - a selection of mini majors and more than 100 specialty stores.
