

Christmas celebrations in full swing at Craigieburn Central

Melbourne, 07 December 2016: The first flakes of snow have fallen from the sky at Craigieburn Central. Shoppers can escape to a winter wonderland and visit the man in the big red suit this festive season.

Located in Central Square, Craigieburn Central's popular snow sessions will be held at 15 minute intervals each Thursday to Sunday from Thursday 8 December until Saturday 24 December, spreading festive spirit and cheer to customers.

The jolly man in red is coming to town and has set up residence in his new home outside Target.

The centre will also host the family-friendly pop-up Cheeky Monkey Market on Friday 23 December and Saturday 24 December, offering shoppers a wide variety of boutique stalls, beautiful hand crafted items and children's wear.

Centre Manager of Craigieburn Central, Rebecca Woods, said customers can take their time to find the perfect gift this year and will enjoy the centre's extended trading hours in the lead up to Christmas.

"We wanted to give our customers an enjoyable and memorable shopping experience at Craigieburn Central this year, and so far our winter wonderland with snow falling from the sky has been very popular with families and young children," she said.

"With plenty of special gifts to choose from, we encourage shoppers to have their gifts beautifully wrapped with our gift wrapping services for a small gold coin donation to charity.

"There are plenty of activities to keep the children entertained with craft activities, face painting and balloon modelling."

Craigieburn Central's Christmas extended trading hours will be from Saturday 17 December.
