Lendlease a Sponsor of the 2017 Chicago Architecture Biennial

(Chicago, IL, October 25, 2017) - Lendlease, a leading international property group, is pleased to announce that it's a Sponsor of the 2017 Chicago Architecture Biennial.

The Chicago Architecture Biennial is an international exhibition of contemporary architecture drawing participants from all over the world. The Biennial will take place from mid-September through early-January. The event will feature architecture firms and artists' design exhibitions that will be displayed at the Chicago Cultural Center and throughout the city.

Thomas Weeks, Executive General Manager, Development, Lendlease, said, "Lendlease is proud to be a sponsor of the Chicago Architecture Biennial – an event that inspires the architecture and design community to 'Make New History' by bringing together people and exhibitions from all over the world to challenge and inform others about innovative and creative design."

In addition to being a key sponsor of this year's Chicago Architecture Biennial, Lendlease will be sponsoring The Biennial Welcome and Learning Center (The Center) located at 78 East Washington Street. The Center will host rotating temporary exhibitions and displays from design practitioners, local and national schools of architecture, and other creative teams. Various exhibitions scheduled at The Center are included below:

- Sight Six: Chicago Architecture Biennial Poster Design Exhibition - Sight Six celebrates the history and heritage of the Chicago Architecture Biennial's Community Anchor Sites through a selection of highlighted graphic posters. Blending past and present, this poster series also highlights the talent of the city's contemporary graphic designers.

- Arquitectos - Featured from September 16th through January 7th, the Arquitectos exhibition will highlight recent work completed by established and emerging Latin architects.
