Lendlease Projects Selected as Chicago Building Congress's Merit Award Winners

(Chicago, IL – July 5, 2017) – The Chicago Building Congress selected two of Lendlease's recent projects, River Point and the Abe & Ida Cooper Center, as 2017 Merit Award winners in their respective categories.

"It's wonderful to have these two significant projects recognized as the Best Projects of the Year," said Bert Brandt, Senior Vice President and General Manager of Lendlease's Chicago office. "We have to thank all team members and partners for their hard work and effort in bringing these iconic jobs to life."

River Point, winner of the 2017 Best Project in the New Construction Over $55 Million category, is a 52-story, ultra-modern office building located in the West Loop along the bank of Chicago River. Owned by Ivanhoé Cambridge, Hines and Levy Family Partners and designed by Pickard Chilton Architects, Inc and Kendall/Heaton Associates, Inc., the building features a striking convex curtainwall, three-story lobby, a public riverwalk plaza and is pre-certified LEED-CS Gold.

The Abe & Ida Cooper Center, a community outreach center located in Chicago's West Roger's Park neighborhood, was awarded the 2017 Best Project in the Construction Under $15 Million category. The Cooper Center is owned by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago Facilities Corporation, operated by Jewish Child and Family Services, and was designed by OKW Architects, Inc. The project achieved LEED Gold Certification and includes sustainable features such as a green roof and solar roof panels.

Since 1976, the Lendlease Chicago office has provided an array of construction services to an established and growing client base across all building sectors. Currently, the office is managing $1 billion worth of projects throughout the area.
