

New beauty salon blends into Brisbane Showgrounds

Brisbane, 24 August, 2017: Salon Blend has opened its doors at one of Brisbane's fastest growing urban precincts and lifestyle hotspots, King Street at the Brisbane Showgrounds.

Owned and operated by Pragmatic Training, the state-of-the-art commercial salon offers rejuvenating treatments with fully qualified beauty therapists as well as providing placement and employment opportunities for students of The National Academy of Beauty.

The high-end salon offers a variety of treatments, including luxury Vichy shower treatments, microdermabrasion, waxing, Moroccan spray tans, eyelash extensions, manicures and pedicures, full body exfoliations, hot stone massages, facials, hair styling and Bodyography makeup packages.

Brisbane Showgrounds Project Director Andrew Hay said Salon Blend was an exciting new addition to the King Street offering.

"King Street is showcasing the city's best, while attracting an entire new wave of talent to be shared," he said.

Pragmatic Training Group Education Manager, Pauline Smales along with the Salon Blend team, Kellie Powers and Danielle Anderson said they were very excited to bring the salon's services and express lunch time treatments to this vibrant part of Brisbane.

"We love the feel of this lifestyle destination and look forward to pampering the community with our beautiful healthy treatments and quality products.

"Clients can relax knowing they are in the hands of leading makeup artists and beauty therapists, they are being treated to the best brands and all their needs are met at one location," she said.

The salon offers four private luxurious beauty rooms, a gorgeous range of products from Water Lily, Dermalogica and Mary Cohr and will also cater for hen's parties and ladies' night packages.

Salon Blend joins The Emporium Barber and boutique high-end hair salon, Tiger Lamb which is due to open later this year underneath The Yards apartments on King Street.

The salon is open Monday and Tuesday 10am-5pm, Wednesday 10am-7pm, Thursday and Friday 8am-7pm and Saturday from 10am-4pm. Clients can view the full menu of services and book online by visiting www.salonblend.com.au

The Brisbane Showgrounds is one of Brisbane's most well connected and walkable neighbourhoods, a lively entertainment, retail and events quarter providing an inner-city lifestyle like no other.
