

One Sydney Harbour elevates luxury with new Porsche car share as sales exceed $4 billion

Sydney, 20 March 2025: Residents at Lendlease's world-class One Sydney Harbour waterfront development will soon have access to an exclusive luxury car share service offering electric Porsche vehicles, as sales across the three residential towers surpass $4 billion.

Lendlease has partnered with transportation solutions provider, Outbound, to launch Porsche's new fleet of electric vehicles (EV), including the Macan and Taycan, available for residents of the building to hire.

The service will add a new level of convenience for residents to travel around the city for errands to weekends away in style, offering both a premium and low emissions transportation experience from their doorstep.

Residents will be able to reserve, pay and access support through the Outbound app, and even lock, unlock and drive the vehicles conveniently through their phones.

The new car share service enhances the already exceptional amenities at One Sydney Harbour, which include a 24-hour concierge service, state-of-the-art wellness facilities, indoor and outdoor pools, a private dining room, wine gallery, and residents' lounge.

This is the second collaboration between Lendlease and Outbound, with the transportation solutions provider offering Tesla EV hire for tenants in nearby commercial building, Salesforce Tower, since 2023.

Located in the heart of Barangaroo, One Sydney Harbour is a landmark residential development by Lendlease, designed by world-renowned architect Renzo Piano. The development consists of three towers offering unparalleled views of Sydney Harbour and residences designed with the highest level of luxury in mind.

One Sydney Harbour is now 95 per cent sold by value, with more than $4 billion in sales across the three towers. With limited residences remaining, this represents a last chance to purchase into the prestigious address.

Prices start at $1.68 million for a one-bedroom, $3 million for a two-bedroom and $5.3 million for a three-bedroom. Most residences have settled across all three towers, and residents have moved in.

Annamese, Haven Coffee and Anita Gelato have opened in the precinct, with more food and beverage and service retailers to come later this year.

Quotes attributable to Stuart Mendel, Executive Director Development NSW/ACT, Lendlease

“Surpassing $4 billion in sales is testament to the high calibre of One Sydney Harbour’s residential offering.

“Our commitment to creating luxury experiences for our customers is clear through the range of exclusive amenities, like the Porsche EV car share program.

“Whether it’s driving a Porsche Macan or Taycan or the easy access to the new Barangaroo metro station, One Sydney Harbour offers the ultimate convenience and connection.”

Quotes attributable to Luke Rust, Co-Founder and CEO of Outbound

“Even in Sydney’s most prestigious real estate, shared transportation remains in-demand – but on a new level of style and sophistication.

“Residents will be able to leave their apartments at One Sydney Harbour and easily access an electric Porsche, ready and waiting.

“We’re pleased to partner with Lendlease again and drive up the standard of amenities in modern developments.”
