New display home showcases prestige apartment living at The Gardens on Lindfield

Gold Coast, 22 July 2016: Buyers looking for the very best in modern retirement living within a friendly gated community are encouraged to visit The View apartments brand-new display home at The Gardens on Lindfield.

The 16 prestige apartments, priced from $465,000, consist of two bedrooms and a separate study, offering potential buyers an enviable coastal lifestyle with first class facilities.

Mark Criddle, QLD Regional Manager, Lendlease Retirement Living said The Gardens on Lindfield was excited to offer apartment living at its best.

“We understand it’s important to provide a range of housing solutions and amenity which meets the needs and aspirations of residents from all lifestyles, budgets and backgrounds.

“Apartment living is a fantastic option for many to downsize their home but upgrade their lifestyle.”

To suit the relaxed contemporary lifestyle, the apartments will feature open-plan living and dining areas, Chef’s kitchen with Miele appliances and stone benchtops, ducted reverse-cycle air-conditioning, private outdoor entertaining spaces and oversized garage spaces.

With something for everyone, the village offers a huge array of amenities including a heated swimming pool with regular aqua aerobics classes, clubhouse, indoor bowls, bocce court, putting green, a competition standard bowling green, croquet lawns, a petanque court, cinematic viewing room, craft and hobby rooms and a well-stocked library.

“The village offers potential buyers a place that fosters social connection which encourages residents to feel at home with themselves, each other and the wider community,” Mr Criddle said.

Located just 20 minutes from Surfers Paradise, The Gardens on Lindfield is within close reach to Helensvale shopping centre, two golf clubs, medical centre and the Gold Coast light rail.
