

MEDIA RELEASE

Lendlease Celebrates International Women's Day Across the United States

(New York, NY, March 8, 2017) — In honor of International Women's Day, Lendlease will be sponsoring a series of activities focused on raising awareness of gender equity and stories of inspirational women across the country. The theme this year is #BEBOLDFORCHANGE, encouraging people to step up and take groundbreaking action to help drive gender equality.

"At Lendlease our vision is to create the best places and to do that Lendlease should be the best place to work for all," said Teena Hester, Head of Human Resources. "We have incredibly talented, driven and inspiring women working at Lendlease. Our commitment is to give everyone an equal chance to succeed," said Hester.

Focused on enhancing gender equity, Lendlease is committed to attracting, developing and retaining women. Gender equity is about achieving fairness, ensuring everyone has access to the same opportunities and resources to reach their full potential. It's about finding the right people for the right roles, and making sure our employees have the support and encouragement to be their best.

Below is a list of Lendlease sponsored events for International Women's Day:

- Boston – On March 8, Lendlease will host guest speaker Darla Pires DeGrace, who serves as the Director of National Diversity Recruitment and Strategic Partnerships at City Year. Ms. DeGrace will speak on empowering women in the workplace.
- California – Representatives from Lendlease's offices in Los Angeles and San Francisco will conduct site tours of Lendlease-managed projects with students of the ACE Mentorship program in both cities in March.
- Charlotte – Lendlease will host a breakfast on March 8 and will have Lendlease employees Meredith Fix, Heather Rudolph and Gail Adams, discuss their career experiences.
- Chicago – Lendlease invited guest speaker Eileen Chin, President of RM Chin & Associates, a large Owner's Representative and Construction Management firm in Chicago, which is a Minority and Woman-Owned Business. Ms. Chin will discuss her career experience in the Chicago construction industry on March 8.
- Nashville – Leaders in Lendlease's Communities business will host a brunch on March 8 and discuss their commitment to building an inclusive workplace.
- New York – Lendlease will host an International Women's Day celebration event, which will feature a discussion on gender equality and how to empower women in the workplace on March 9.

For additional information, contact:

John DeLibero

Director of Public Relations

212 592 6895

John.Delibero@lendlease.com

About Lendlease:

Lendlease is a leading international property and infrastructure group. Listed on the Australian Securities Exchange and with circa 12,000 (June 2016) employees worldwide, Lendlease's capabilities span the property value chain.

The Americas region, headquartered in New York, offers project management & construction, public partnerships, development, asset and property management. Our expertise covers multiple sectors including arts & culture, commercial office, education, energy, government, healthcare, hotels & resorts, industrial, military housing communities, mixed-use, multi-site, pharmaceutical, senior living, telecommunications, transportation and aviation and urban regeneration.

We are committed to operating Incident & Injury Free wherever we have a presence, safely creating innovative and sustainable property solutions while forging partnerships and delivering maximum benefits to clients, investors and communities.

www.lendlease.com